

Kingston Lacy

THE NATIONAL TRUST NEEDS YOU!

Are you looking for an interesting and rewarding way to fill a bit of your spare time?

Why not support one of the local treasure houses and sign up as a volunteer at Kingston Lacy?

I have been working there for a couple of years now, and found it a valuable lifeline during the Covid-19 Crisis. You can pick your own times and days, and there is no pressure on you regarding how often you want to do it. As an extra bonus, there are several “perks”, such as discount in the shop/cafe, travel expenses etc. and meeting lots of interesting visitors.

Every session is different, and the visitors are pleased to see a smiling face who can tell them the story of the Bankes family – all their trials and tribulations – and in turn you learn from them in so many different ways.

You don't have to have any special knowledge or skills, apart from making people feel welcome and ensuring that they don't damage anything, and you can take pride in knowing that you are helping to preserve our heritage.
